

Course unit title:	Senior project 2
Course unit code:	ABSP450
Type of course unit:	Compulsory
Level of course unit:	Undergraduate
Year of study:	4 th year year
Semester when the unit is delivered:	2nd semester
Number of ECTS credits allocated:	6
Name of tentative lecturer(s):	An academic supervisor
Learning outcomes of the course unit:	After completing this module, students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Demonstrate the ability to collect data relevant to a specific research question</li> <li>• Analyse the data while following a specific methodology</li> <li>• Identify and explain results that can be derived from the above process</li> <li>• Discuss the research results in the light of the existing relevant literature</li> <li>• Prepare a relevant introduction and conclusion to the research project</li> <li>• Complete the existing 5000-word draft document to reach a final document of 12,000 words</li> <li>• Acquire skills in various domains including: writing, editing, conceptualizing, methodology, work organisation, time management, scientific rigor, academic honesty, ethics, critical thinking and creativity.</li> </ul>
Mode of delivery:	Face-to-face
Prerequisites:	ABRM350, ABSP449	Co-requisites:	None
Recommended optional program components:	None
Course contents:	The students will perform the following tasks: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- collect data relevant to the research questions</li> <li>- process and analyse the data</li> <li>- identify results</li> <li>- discuss these results</li> <li>- interpret these results within the context of existing literature</li> <li>- draw conclusions</li> </ul>
Recommended	Will depend on the research topics chosen and/or required reading:

Textbooks:	Will depend on the research topics chosen
References:	Will depend on the research topics chosen
Planned learning activities and teaching methods:	Supervisors will meet face-to-face with students during the process
Assessment methods and criteria:	An examiners panel will assess the work. Assessment will include originality, overall project quality, quality of written presentation, oral defence, and overall commitment of the student
Language of instruction:	English
Work placement(s):	No