SCHOOL OF EDUCATIONAL SCIENCES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIAL WORK

(CIP file- Classification of instructional programmes)

LPSY 400
Elective
BA
6
Andreas Panayiotou, Irene Photiou
 Familiarization of the students with the theoretical models of interpretation on the experience/ roles/construction of gender identity, and the methodological research strategies on the subject and the psychological dimensions of gender relations. There will be a special focus on the female experience in part due to the available research [which is indicative of the broader processes of gender construction] and in part due to the transformations which have ensued with the crisis of male-dominated hegemony Understanding the development of research on the concept of gender, the codification and transformation of the concepts of femininity and masculir [as autonomous concepts and as part of an interactive structure] and their impact in practice in various social spheres 3. Investigation of the current situation of the definition of genders, the relative between the two main/historical genders, in connection with the broad social/cultural changes [especially the questioning of gender inequality] also the conflicts over these definitions and their impact on gender relations.
					 Evaluation of the interpretative and research models and methods for understanding gender experience, the fluidity of roles today and their psychological impact of the broader cultural context
 Interpretation of the different models of analysis in the context of different forms of problematics and levels of analysis
Lectures – debates in a critical evaluative context
Presentation and analysis of data in relation to interp methodology	retative models and
No Co-requisites:	No
Introduction to basic concepts of Gender: biological and social gender, multiple genders, stereotypes/discrimination, roles, femininity and masculinity. The debate on the biological determination or the positive contraction of Elective BA Andreas Panayiotou, Irene Photiou 1. Familiarization of the students with the theo on the experience/ roles/construction or methodological research strategies on the dimensions of gender relations. There will be experience in part due to the available research strategies on the old the state of the st

3. Psychological approaches Psychoanalytic approach Social learning The existentialist approach and humanistic psychology Cognitive-developmental approach The impact of feminism on understanding the female experience The body and gender. The Imaginary: the transformations of the psychoanalytic theory as a case study The inew psychology of women. Sociability The historical transformation of the definitions of gender in modernity New interpretative models: performativity Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The mexperience The mexperience To Social issues, social change and gender psychology violence, wo pornography, abortion] Recommended and/or required reading: Textbooks: May Evans. 2004. Gender and Social Theory. Open University Press References: 1. Jean Baker Miller.1976. Towards a new psychology of Women. Boston: Beacon Press.		gender
Psychoanalytic approach Social learning The existentialist approach and humanistic psychology Cognitive-developmental approach The impact of feminism on understanding the female experience The body and gender. The Imaginary: the transformations of psychoanalytic theory as a case study The "new psychology of women". Sociability The historical transformation of the definitions of gender in modernity Reversed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The mexperience Social issues, social change and gender psychology violence, wopornography, abortion] Recommended and/or required reading: Reader with selected texts May Evans. 2004. Gender and Social Theory. Open University Press References: 1. Jean Baker Miller.1976. Towards a new psychology of Women. Boston: Beacon Press.
Social learning The existentialist approach and humanistic psychology Cognitive-developmental approach The impact of feminism on understanding the female experience The body and gender. The Imaginary: the transformations of the psychoanalytic theory as a case study The "new psychology of women". Sociability The historical transformation of the definitions of gender in modernity New interpretative models: performativity Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The mexperience Social issues, social change and gender psychology violence, work pornography, abortion. Recommended and/or required reading: Reader with selected texts References: May Evans. 2004. Gender and Social Theory. Open University Press 1. Jean Baker Miller.1976. Towards a new psychology of Women. Boston: Beacon Press.		, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
The existentialist approach and humanistic psychology Cognitive-developmental approach The impact of feminism on understanding the female experience The body and gender. The Imaginary: the transformations of the psychoanalytic theory as a case study The inew psychology of women. Sociability The historical transformation of the definitions of gender in modernity New interpretative models: performativity Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The mexperience Social issues, social change and gender psychology violence, wo pornography, abortion. Recommended and/or required reading: Reader with selected texts May Evans. 2004. Gender and Social Theory. Open University Press References: 1. Jean Baker Miller.1976. Towards a new psychology of Women. Boston: Beacon Press.
Cognitive-developmental approach 4. The impact of feminism on understanding the female experience 5. The body and gender. The Imaginary: the transformations of the psychoanalytic theory as a case study 6. The "new psychology of women". Sociability 7. The historical transformation of the definitions of gender in modernity 8. New interpretative models: performativity 9. Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The major experience 10. Social issues, social change and gender psychology violence, work pornography, abortion] Recommended and/or required reading: Reader with selected texts May Evans. 2004. Gender and Social Theory. Open University Press References: 1. Jean Baker Miller. 1976. Towards a new psychology of Women. Boston: Beacon Press.		-
4. The impact of feminism on understanding the female experience 5. The body and gender. The Imaginary: the transformations of the psychoanalytic theory as a case study 6. The "new psychology of women". Sociability 7. The historical transformation of the definitions of gender in modernity 8. New interpretative models: performativity 9. Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The mexperience 10. Social issues, social change and gender psychology violence, word pornography, abortion. Recommended and/or required reading: Textbooks: May Evans. 2004. Gender and Social Theory. Open University Press References: 1. Jean Baker Miller. 1976. Towards a new psychology of Women. Boston: Beacon Press.
5. The body and gender. The Imaginary: the transformations of the psychoanalytic theory as a case study 6. The "new psychology of women". Sociability 7. The historical transformation of the definitions of gender in modernity 8. New interpretative models: performativity 9. Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The magnetic measurement of the polyment of the definitions of gender in modernity 8. New interpretative models: performativity 9. Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The magnetic measurement of the psychology violence, work pornography, abortion] Recommended and/or required reading: Reader with selected texts Textbooks: May Evans. 2004. Gender and Social Theory. Open University Press 1. Jean Baker Miller. 1976. Towards a new psychology of Women. Boston: Beacon Press.
psychoanalytic theory as a case study 6. The "new psychology of women". Sociability 7. The historical transformation of the definitions of gender in modernity 8. New interpretative models: performativity 9. Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The management of the properties of the spectacle of the special change and gender psychology violence, work pornography, abortion] Recommended and/or required reading: Reader with selected texts May Evans. 2004. Gender and Social Theory. Open University Press References: 1. Jean Baker Miller.1976. Towards a new psychology of Women. Boston: Beacon Press.
7. The historical transformation of the definitions of gender in modernity 8. New interpretative models: performativity 9. Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The management of the definitions of gender in modernity 9. Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The management of the definition of the definitions of gender in modernity 9. Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The management of the definition of the definitions of gender in modernity 9. Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The management of the provided in the spectacle. The management of the spectacle of th
8. New interpretative models: performativity 9. Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The management of the experience 10. Social issues, social change and gender psychology violence, wo pornography, abortion] Recommended and/or required reading: Textbooks: May Evans. 2004. Gender and Social Theory. Open University Press 1. Jean Baker Miller.1976. Towards a new psychology of Women. Boston: Beacon Press.
9. Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The management of the spectacle of the spectacle of the spectacle of the spectacle. The management of the spectacle of the specta		7. The historical transformation of the definitions of gender in modernity experience 10. Social issues, social change and gender psychology violence, wo pornography, abortion] Recommended and/or required reading: Textbooks: May Evans. 2004. Gender and Social Theory. Open University Press 1. Jean Baker Miller. 1976. Towards a new psychology of Women. Boston: Beacon Press.		8. New interpretative models: performativity pornography, abortion] Recommended and/or required reading: Textbooks: May Evans. 2004. Gender and Social Theory. Open University Press 1. Jean Baker Miller.1976. Towards a new psychology of Women. Boston: Beacon Press.		9. Surveyed and surveyor the woman, the body and the spectacle. The male experience and/or required reading: Textbooks: May Evans. 2004. Gender and Social Theory. Open University Press 1. Jean Baker Miller.1976. Towards a new psychology of Women. Boston: Beacon Press.		10. Social issues, social change and gender psychology violence, work, pornography, abortion]
References: 1. Jean Baker Miller.1976. Towards a new psychology of Women. Boston: Beacon Press.	and/or required	Reader with selected texts
Beacon Press.	Textbooks:	May Evans. 2004. Gender and Social Theory. Open University Press
Women's Development. Cambridge, Massachusetts: Harvard University Press. 3. Brian Mcnair.2002.Stritease culture: Sex, media and the democratization desire. UK: Routledge 4. Julia Kristeva.2000. The sense and non-sense of Revolt: The powers and limits of psychoanalysis. New York Columbia University Press.	References:	 Beacon Press. Gilligan, Carol (1982). In a Different Voice: Psychological Theory and Women's Development. Cambridge, Massachusetts: Harvard University Press. Brian Mcnair.2002. Stritease culture: Sex, media and the democratization of desire. UK: Routledge Julia Kristeva.2000. The sense and non-sense of Revolt: The powers and limits of psychoanalysis. New York Columbia University Press. Barbara Ehrenreich, Elizabeth Hess, Gloria Jacobs. 1987. Re-making Love. The feminization of sex. New York: Anchor Books.
		The course is conducted through lectures, class discussions and analysis of data activities and teaching methods: The discussions aim at the engagement of students and in the collective exploration of research questions and interpretative models		The discussions aim at the engagement of students and in the collective exploration of research questions and interpretative models
Assessment 1. Participation and test 30%	Assessment methods and criteria:	1. Participation and test 30%
		·
3. Final exam 50%
Language of instruction: Greek and English according to audience		Greek and English according to audience
Work placement(s): No	Work placement(s):	No				