Absence from Examinations

Applications for re-examination due to absence from the specified examination dates will not be approved.

Only In extreme cases (e.g. hospitalization, representation of Cyprus abroad), a special purpose committee will examine the relevant applications. Applications are submitted, together with supporting documents, to Office 36 in Nicosia and the Studies Office in Limassol. Applications will be accepted at most three days after the examination date for which the student did not attend. Students that have an examination the last day of the examination period (26th of January), must submit their application for re-examination together with supporting documents, the latest by Friday, 27th of January.

In case the said Committee approves the application, re-examinations will take place on Friday 27th and Saturday 28th of January 2017.
