

PHDPH301, PHDPH401, PHDPH501 – Doctoral Research (I to III)

Course Title	Doctoral Research (I to III)
Course Code	PHDPH301, PHDPH401, PHDPH501
Course Type	Compulsory
Level	PhD
Year / Semester	3 rd to 5 th Semester
Teacher's Name	Student's Research Advisor (any Teaching and Research Staff member of the Department)
ECTS	15 + 15 + 10	Lectures / week	NA	Laboratories / week	NA
Course Purpose and Objectives	These three courses refer to the research work undertaken by the student, in order to achieve the objectives specified in the research proposal. Students are expected to implement the stated methodology, according to the stated planning, and evaluate and analyze the outcome of their research work.
Learning Outcomes	NA
Prerequisites	PHDPH201 for PHDPH301 PHDPH301 for PHDPH401 PHDPH401 for PHDPH501		Co-requisites	None
Course Content	NA
Teaching Methodology	NA
Bibliography	NA
Assessment	For each one of these three courses, the student must submit to the Research Advisor a progress report on his/her research work. The progress reports for PHDPH301 and PHDPH401 will be assessed and graded by the student's Research Advisor. To satisfy the requirements of the PHDPH501 course, the student is required to present his research work in a seminar series organized by the Department. The assessment of the PHDPH501 course will be based on the progress report for PHDPH501 and the student's oral presentation. The assessment of the PHDPH501 course is carried out by the student's Research Advisory Committee. The student can register for the Dissertation Defense course only if gets a passing grade in PHDPH501.
Language	Greek/English				