

Course Title	Administrative Procedure
Course Code	LAW314
Course Type	Compulsory
Level	Undergraduate
Year / Semester	3rd / F' (Fall)
Teacher's Name	Dr Eliana Nikolaou
ECTS	6	Lectures / week	3	Laboratories / week
Course Purpose and Objectives	Understanding the purpose and content of the administrative procedure. In particular: Administrative procedure law and its sources. The subject of judicial protection. What does administrative dispute mean? Administrative disputes on merits and administrative cassation disputes. The organization of administrative courts. The Supreme Court and the Administrative Court. Jurisdiction. The appeal, the conditions, the decision and the res judicata. Temporary judicial protection. The students will be aware of the importance of the rules governing administrative litigation in providing legal protection to the citizen. They will be familiar with the administrative procedure itself and its details. The competent courts with particular emphasis on the Administrative Court, its organization and functioning. The students will study the appeal procedure before the competent court.

Learning Outcomes	After the lectures it is expected that the students will: Get sufficient knowledge of the provisions of Administrative Procedure up to the final decision stage. Be able to adapt the provisions of administrative procedure accordingly to the new constitutional framework and human rights protection regime. Know the case law of the Administrative and Supreme Court on various aspects of Administrative Procedure. Be adequately trained in the practical application of the rules of administrative procedure so that they can successfully fulfil their obligations as lawyers in the courtroom Encounter problems that arise at all stages of the Administrative Procedure.
Prerequisites	LAW 213 Administrative Law	Required	None
Course Content	Recourse - Appeal. The Constitutional Framework for the Organization of Administrative Jurisdiction. Jurisdiction. Suspension of enforcement of an administrative act - The Administrative Court and the Supreme Court. Conditions of admissibility: Legal interest and time-limit.
Teaching Methodology	Lecture: 20 hours Discussion: 12 hours
Bibliography	An.Angelidis-S.Angelikis, Administrative Procedural Law, Basic principles as formulated under Article 146 of the Constitution of the Republic of Cyprus, Law 33/64, Procedural Regulations and Legal Remedies, Issue of the Cyprus Bar Association, 2011, Paraskevas K., Cypriot Administrative Procedure Law, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2020.
Assessment	Exam(s): 60% Assignment(s): 30% Attendance / Participation: 10%
Language	Greek

Course Title	Administrative Procedure
Course Code	LAW314
Course Type	Compulsory
Level	Undergraduate
Year / Semester	3rd/F'
Teacher's Name	Dr., Evangelia Koutoupa-Regkakou/Dr Vasiliki Karagouni
ECTS	6	Lectures / week	3	Laboratories / week
Course Purpose and Objectives	The purpose of the course in Administrative Procedure is to provide students with a complete picture of how an administrative case is handled, to fully understand the essential elements of administrative court jurisdiction and to answer complex practical questions about the structure of administrative law.

Learning Outcomes	Students completing the course in Administrative Law are able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Handle the various existing legislation on the jurisdiction of the courts. - Recognise disputes heard by administrative courts and those adjudicated by civil courts. - Explain the competences of the Supreme Special Court, the Court of Auditors, the Council of State and the administrative courts. - Distinguish the disputes of annulment from the disputes of substance. - Recognise the different remedies brought before each court. - Calculate deadlines for filing legal remedies. - Detect the existence or non-legitimate interest. - Describe the conditions of admissibility and justification and identify the reasons for the cancellation or reform of an administrative act. - Recognise the need for temporary judicial protection. - Solve practical problems with the implementation of the relevant legislation.
Prerequisites	LAW 213 Administrative Law	Required	None

Course Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Procedural administrative law and its sources. The subject of judicial protection. - Judicial review of public administration activity. The Constitutional Framework for the organisation of Administrative Courts. - The Supreme Special Court, the Court of Auditors, the Council of State and the administrative courts. Jurisdiction. - Concept of administrative dispute. Substantive administrative disputes and administrative cancellation disputes. - Application for annulment, conditions of admissibility, legal interest, time-limit, grounds for annulment, decision and res judicata. Third-party and civil action. - Temporary judicial protection - Suspension of enforcement of an administrative act. - Appeal - Action - Opposition - Objection. - Remedies - Appeal - Cassation.
Teaching Methodology	Lectures: 20 hrs Discussion: 12 hrs

Bibliography

- E. Spiliotopoulou: Handbook of Administrative Law, Volume II, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2015.
- Ch. Chrysanthakis, Administrative Procedure-Interpretation by Article, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2018.
- P. Lazaratos: Administrative Procedural Law, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2018.
- Ch. Chrysanthakis, Introduction to Administrative Procedural Law, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2016.
- P. Giannakakis, Evidence before the ordinary administrative courts, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2019.
- S. Mitsiopoulou, Lawsuit in Administrative Law, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2019
- V. Karakostas, The application for annulment, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2018.
- V. Karakostas, Lawsuits in Administrative Law, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2018
- Ch. Chrysanthakis, Administrative Court of Appeals, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2017.
- D. Pyrgakis, The legal interest in the lawsuit before the CoS, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2017.
- K. Callonomos, Practical Issues in Administrative Procedure, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2017.
- S. Kevelos, The deadlines in administrative litigation, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2015.
- A. Gerontas, Summary of Administrative Procedural Law, Sakkoulas, 2015.
- P. Dagtoglou: Administrative Procedural Law, Sakkoula, 2014.
- Ch. Chrysanthakis, Diagrams of Administrative Procedural Law, Law Library, 2013.
- P. Lazaratos, Provisional Judicial Protection under the Code of Administrative Procedure, 2nd ed., Ant. Sakkoulas, 2005
- -M. Spyridakis-E. Georgakakis: Elements of Administrative Justice, Sakkoulas, 2008.
- - V. Karagkouni, Defense against Protocols of the State, Nomiki Bibliothiki, 2020.

Assessment	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Attendance and participation (10%)• Midterm examination with practical problems solving, theory and legislation application (20%)• Multiple Choice Progress Test (10%)• Final Examination (60%)
Language	Greek